

Foothill Quilters Guild, Auburn, CA

Annual Show April 7 - 8, 2017

Vendors, please note: It's all new!

Foothill Quilters Guild will hold its annual show in a new venue next Spring! After more than 35 years at the fairgrounds, we've turned the page. Our show will happen at Parkside Church, 3885 Richardson Drive, on the north side of Auburn, CA.

Another change offers exciting possibilities, as well. We're scheduling the show on Friday and Saturday, April 7-8, 2017. Perhaps avoiding those Sunday slow-downs will energize your sales!

We have planned vendor spaces in the active areas of the show where quilts will hang to attract lots of attention. Visitors will enjoy the café on-site, too. No more hills to climb, clean and bright surroundings, plenty of parking, and a friendly atmosphere....what more can we wish for? Well.....only YOU being there to help us put on an extra special quilt show for 2017! Our vendors are an important part of every attendee's experience, so we hope you'll want to come.

Please peruse and complete the enclosed information and application, and send it to us by the September 21st deadline. We look forward to working with you!

Maryann Mealhow and Pat McCandless, Vendor Co-Chairs